

ENTER THE GREAT WAR LETTERS CONTEST

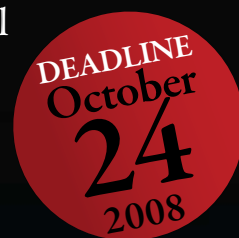

ARE YOU A YOUNG PERSON BETWEEN THE AGES OF 14-18?

Be part of the Passchendaele in the Classroom campaign
by penning a letter as if it were written during the First World War!

Consider writing from the perspective of

- A soldier to his wife from the battlefield
- A doctor or nurse treating injured soldiers in an overseas hospital
- A worker in Canada describing the conditions at home

Your letters will be judged by a panel of well known Canadians including Adrienne Clarkson, Paul Gross and the last remaining Canadian First World War veteran, John Babcock.

First place winner will win a trip to the Passchendaele battlefields in Belgium.
Classes are also eligible for additional prizes.
